

New Perspectives in Transnational Legal Studies

Colloquium Schedule

Professors Julie O’Sullivan and Serena Quattrocolo

All sessions: Center for Transnational Legal Studies, Swan House, 37-39 High Holborn 3:00pm for a 3:10pm start

Week 1: 17 January

Richard Vogler (University of Sussex)
UK Permanence in the ECHR

Week 2: 24 January

Ugo Pagallo (University of Torino/CTLS)
Politics and A.I.

Week 3: 31 January

Ann O’Connell (University of Melbourne/CTLS)
Taxation and the Not-for-Profit Sector Globally - Common Issues, Different Solutions

Week 4: 7 February

Lorenzo Zucca (King’s College London)
Shakespeare and Law

Week 5: 14 February

David Mosey (King's College London)
Transnational Building Law

Week 6: 21 February

Roberto Caranta (University of Torino)
Civil Society and Multi-Level Governance: A View from Aarhus

Week 7: 28 February

Lecture in Transnational Justice
(no reaction papers accepted this week)

Judge Theodor Meron (President, Mechanism for International Criminal Tribunals)
International Criminal Tribunals and the Rule of Law

Week 8: 7 March

Amanda Tyler (University of California, Berkeley)
Habeas Corpus in War Times

Week 9: 21 March

Francesco Costamagna (University of Torino)
The Issue of Territoriality under International Investment Law

Week 10: 28 March

Federico Picinali (London School of Economics)
Theory of Punishment

Week 11: 4 April

Carola Göhlich (University of Fribourg)
Presumption of Innocence

Week 12: 11 April

Gianluca Parolin (The Aga Khan University)
HD Jurisprudence: Law Enforcement in Egyptian TV Series

Week 13: 18 April

Franz Werro (University of Fribourg/Georgetown Law)
European Private Law: Quo Vadis?
